

Hagy Belzberg, AIA
Principal, Belzberg Architects

Hagy Belzberg received his Master of Architecture, with Distinction, from Harvard University Graduate School of Design and has been a Graduate level Studio Instructor at the Southern California Institute of Architecture and a lecturer at UCLA Graduate school of Architecture + Urbanism. Recently, he has been invited to speak at the New Museum in New York, the National Building Museum in Washington DC, the Los Angeles Forum for Architecture and Urban Planning, as well as several other universities and design conferences

In 2008 he received the Architecture League of New York Emerging Voice Award and previously has received the Emerging Talent Award from the American Institute of Architects California Council. His firm has received several Distinguished Building and Honor Design Awards from the American Institute of Architects as well as the Urban Land Institute Award, LA A.I.A./Next Honor Awards, Urban Beautification Awards from the Los Angeles Business Council and American Architecture Awards from the Chicago Athenaeum

His projects have been featured in several traveling exhibits, including:

“Expanding Bodies”, Halifax, Nova Scotia, 10/07

“Material Skills – The future of intelligent materials” Toronto, 9/07

“Future Wood: Innovation in Building design + materials, University of British Columbia, 2/07

His designs and projects have been featured in publications throughout the world including the New York Times, Architectural Record, Phiadon Atlas for Contemporary World Architecture, FRAME, Architectural Digest USA, France and Russia, Architecture + Urbanism (A+U) Japan, Global Architecture (GA) Japan, Progressive Architecture, L. A. Times Magazine, Interior Design, Vogue Living Australia, Korean Architect, Architecture of Israel, House and Garden, Metropolitan Home, BOB International Magazine, Hospitality Design, L’Arca Edizioni Milan, as well as other publications and journals.

2005 Monograph: IN-PHIL Architecture at the Walt Disney Concert Hall