

Lunchtime Learning

an AIA San Diego CES program

TITLE: Color Trends Forecast: Learn how trends evolve and discover how the built environment will look in the years to come

Program presented by

DATE: Wednesday, November 7, 2007

TIME: Lunch 12:00 noon
Presentation 12:15-1:15 p.m.

PLACE: Cavnac & Associates, 450 B Street, Suite 1800, Downtown San Diego (enter building from A Street)

ABOUT: An introduction of how trends evolve is followed by a look at how the built environment will look in the years to come. Four key trends in architecture, color and furnishings for 2009 and beyond will be presented in this trend forecasting presentation. This forecast was developed by DuPont Surfaces with Global Color Research in London, a leading color, design, and trend studio for both fashion and interiors.

BY: Gin Guei Ebnasajjad has been with the DuPont Company for 24 years. She started her career in the Nylon Textile Fiber Division and moved to Corian® in 1986. She is credited with the expansion of manufacturing capability to produce a wide range of colors and aesthetics. At the same time she has also been leading the effort in the development and implementation of a Global Color Plan. She is directly responsible for the styling and development of new color/design for all product lines within DuPont Surfaces. Under her leadership, the Corian® color line has grown to over 130 colors, DuPont has launched the Zodiac® color line, and has also expanded the Montelli color line for the People's Republic of China.
